

velyen

EXCLUSIVE INFORMATIVE SYSTEM FOR ELECTRONIC LIFTS

SCS is the new self-diagnostic and integrated informative system for vehicle lifts. This system analyses the mechanical and electrical state of lifts and it helps not only the breakdown prevention but the decrease of repair expenses as well. It is also a useful guide to be used by the technical assistance services.

SCS operational utility to final customer permits to pre-set an automatic height stop of the lift.

SCS advises the customer through its digital screen for periodical maintenance and deeply general revision services according to the charge work requested by each hoist.

Lifts equipped with SCS: 4EC0500, 4EC0600, 4EC0800 & 4EC0900

CUSTOMER INFORMATION

Spot information about lift height in centimeters

Pre-set service for automatic height stop

Maintenance Service Warning Advice

General Revision Warning Advice

The most innovative and intelligent informative system for vehicle lifts offering complete information about the status of the lift.

TECHNICAL SERVICE INFORMATION

Thanks to its self-diagnostic system, SCS becomes a helpful tool for technicians receiving detailed information about damaged parts of the lift.

Because this information technicians are able to know the breakdown origin without disassembly the lift and also give telephone assistance to customer.

These advantages directly impacts reducing repair times and simplify the issue of breakdown estimates.